

MEDIA ALERT

The Minister for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries, the Hon. Rory McEwen, will this week launch the next stage of an ambitious $25.8 million program, Marine Innovation SA, which will help secure the State's seafood industry and protect its precious marine environment.

Minister McEwen, will announce the developments at a function to be held at the South Australian Aquatic Sciences Centre, 2 Hamra Ave, West Beach at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, September 28, 2005.

Key speakers are the Chancellor of Flinders University, Sir Eric Neal, SARDI Chief Executive, Dr Rob Lewis, SARDI Aquatic Sciences Chief Research Scientist, Professor Anthony Cheshire and Australian Seafood Industry Council Chair, Bob Pennington.

For further information, please contact: Heather Riddell 0417 851936